Short biography

Guillermo Laporta

Guillermo Laporta is a Spanish flutist, composer, and designer based in New York City. He is co-founder and Artistic Director of CreArtBox, a New York-based piano quintet with an established concert season and touring activity, and Festival ADAR, dedicated to developing the arts in rural communities in Asturias. His work expands the flute repertoire through transcriptions and new music, while his operas and “visual concerts” combine classical music with visual storytelling.

guillermo@creartbox.nyc · guillermolaporta.com